EXAMINATION CONTENT NATIONAL CLINICAL MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING EXAMINATION (NCMHCE)

The problems on the National Clinical Mental Health Counseling Examination (NCMHCE) are designed to sample a broad area of competencies, not the recall of isolated facts. Therefore, the problems assess clinical problem-solving ability, including identifying, analyzing, diagnosing, and treating clinical problems.

The examination consists of 10 clinical mental health counseling cases. Each case is divided into 5-8 sections classified as either Information Gathering (IG) or Decision Making (DM). The examination covers the following areas:

Evaluation and Assessment

For example:

- Identify precipitating problems or symptoms
- Conduct mental status exam
- Identify individual and relationship functioning
- Provide other referral sources

Clinical Diagnosis and Treatment Planning

For example:

- Integrate client assessment and observational data with clinical judgement to formulate a differential diagnosis
- Develop a treatment plan in collaboration with the client
- Coordinate treatment plan with other service providers
- Monitor client progress toward goal attainment

Clinical Practice

For example:

- Determine if service meets client's needs
- Discuss ethical and legal issues
- Understand scope of practice parameters
- Provide prevention interventions

EXAMINATION FORMAT

A clinical mental health counselor is required to make important clinical decisions regarding the well-being of clients. Therefore, a clinical simulation examination is used to more realistically assess knowledge in such decision making.

The NCMHCE is a clinical simulation examination. Each problem will consist of three components: Scenario, Information Gathering (IG) sections, and Decision Making (DM) sections. Each problem begins with a scenario. The scenario provides the setting and introductory client information (e.g., age, gender, presenting problem(s)).

In Information Gathering (IG) sections, you are expected to gather all relevant information for answering the questions. This might include family background, status of physical health, previous experience in counseling, etc. Read all responses before choosing the responses that you consider necessary for responding to the question about the client. You should select all options that are appropriate at that time. If you select more or less options than are appropriate, this will adversely impact your information gathering score.

Decision Making (DM) sections provide opportunities for making clinical judgements or decisions. These sections may be formatted in one of two ways:

1. Single Best Option- There may be more than one acceptable option, but one option is generally regarded as most acceptable.
2. Multiple Options- Several options are considered appropriate. These sections address decisions in which a combination of actions is required.

In the Decision Making section described as "Single Best Option," the instructions are to "CHOOSE ONLY ONE" option. You should not assume that your response is incorrect if you are directed to make another selection. The simulation examination format sometimes uses this direction. The multiple option type of decision making described as "Multiple Options" will have instructions to "SELECT AS MANY."

The procedure for taking the National Clinical Mental Health Counseling Examination (NCMHCE) is different from that of the more common multiple-choice examinations. Each simulation problem is identified by a number and the client's name and each section is identified by a letter.

SAMPLE CLINICAL SIMULATION PROBLEM

The following is an example of an IG and DM section as it might appear in a problem on the National Clinical Mental Health Counseling Examination (NCMHCE). Remember that in an actual problem, there will be 5-8 sections and 4-14 selections per section (depending on the nature of the section). The responses in the shaded right-hand column are covered here. In the actual examination you will not be able to see the response unless you select it.

Simulation 1- Ms. Wagner: You are a clinical mental health counselor in a small group private practice. Ms. Wagner is a 37-year-old female who has scheduled an appointment with you. She states, "My primary care physician said you probably could help me." For the past 3 months, Ms. Wagner has been feeling stressed, had problems sleeping, and has not been able to focus on her work.

Section A- Ms. Wagner

During the first session, which of the following would be most important to assess in order to formulate a provisional DSM-IV diagnosis? (SELECT AS MANY as you consider indicated in this section.)

A-1.	Mental status	A-1.	Unremarkable **
A-2.	Stressors	A-2.	Single parent of a 10-year-old girl, elementary teacher at a new school, and father had a heart attack 3 months ago
A-3.	Previous counseling	A-3.	None
A-4.	Recreation activities	A-4.	Not relevant at this time
A-5.	Family history of mental illness	A-5.	None

7-9 more choices would appear here on a complete problem.

When you have completed your selections in this section, UNCOVER RESPONSE A-13

A-13.	Go to section D
-------	-------------------

Section D- Ms. Wagner

Based on the information obtained about Ms. Wagner, what is the provisional DSM-IV diagnosis?

(CHOOSE ONLY ONE unless you are directed to “Make another selection in this Section.”)

D-1. Generalized Anxiety Disorder

D-1.

Not indicated.
Make another selection in this section.

D-2. Major Depressive Disorder,
Single Episode

D-2.

Not indicated.
Make another selection in this section.

D-3. Adjustment Disorder with Depressed Mood

D-3.

Go to Section ____.

D-4. Dysthymic Disorder

D-4.

Not indicated.
Make another selection in this section.

This section might have 1-2 more alternatives on a complete problem.

PREPARING FOR THE EXAMINATION

Your primary objective in preparing for the examination is to pass. Other objectives such as learning new material and reviewing old material are critical toward this objective. Begin your study by developing your strategy for success.

A good study strategy includes preparation. To prepare, determine first what you need to learn, choose your study materials, and select a quiet, comfortable place that allows you to focus. Before you begin, check to make sure you have everything you need. Try to avoid interruptions.

Developing a study plan will allow you to learn the most as you study. Include setting goals in your study plan. Review what you have studied as often as possible. The more you review, the more you will retain.

TAKING THE EXAMINATION

Your examination will be given by computer at an AMP Assessment Center. You do not need computer experience or typing skills to take the examination. On the day of your examination appointment, report to the Assessment Center at your scheduled test-taking time. Look for the signs indicating AMP Assessment Center Check-in. A CANDIDATE WHO ARRIVES MORE THAN 15 MINUTES AFTER THE SCHEDULED TESTING TIME WILL NOT BE ADMITTED.

IDENTIFICATION

To gain admission to the Assessment Center, you must present two forms of identification, one with a current photograph. Both forms of identification must be current and include your current name and signature. You will be required to sign a roster for verification of identity.

Acceptable forms of photo identification include a current driver's license with photograph, a current state identification card with photograph, a current passport, or a current military identification card with photograph. Employment ID cards, student ID cards and any type of temporary identification are NOT acceptable as the primary form of identification.

You must have proper identification to gain admission to the Assessment Center. Failure to provide appropriate identification at the time of the examination is considered a missed appointment. There will be no refund of your examination fee.

SECURITY

NBCC and AMP maintain examination administration and security standards so that all candidates have the same opportunity to demonstrate their abilities. The Assessment Center is continuously monitored by audio and video surveillance equipment for security purposes.

The following security procedures apply during the examination:

- No cameras, notes, tape recorders, Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs), pagers, or cellular phones are allowed in the testing room.
- No calculators are permitted.
- No guests, visitors, or family members are allowed in the testing room or reception areas.
- No personal items, valuables, or weapons should be brought to the Assessment Center. Only keys and wallets may be taken into the testing room. AMP is not responsible for items left in the reception areas.

EXAMINATION RESTRICTIONS

- No personal belongings are allowed in the Assessment Center. Pencils will be provided during check-in.
- You will be provided with scratch paper to use during the examination. You must return the scratch paper to the proctor at the completion of testing, or you will not receive a score report. No documents or notes of any kind may be removed from the examination room.

- No questions concerning the content of the examination may be asked during the examination.
- Eating, drinking, or smoking is not permitted in the Assessment Center.
- You may take a break whenever you wish, but you will not be given additional time to test.

MISCONDUCT

Individuals who engage in any of the following conduct may be dismissed from the examination and will forfeit their scores and fees. Examples of misconduct are:

- creating a disturbance, being abusive, or otherwise uncooperative;
- displaying and/or using electronic communications equipment such as pagers, cellular phones, PDAs;
- giving or receiving help or being suspected of doing so;
- attempting to record examination questions or make notes;
- attempts to take the examination for someone else; or
- being observed with notes, books, or other aids.

COPYRIGHTED EXAMINATION QUESTIONS

All examination questions are the copyrighted property of NBCC. It is forbidden under federal copyright law to copy, reproduce, record, distribute, or display these examination questions by any means, in whole or in part. Those who do so may be subject to severe civil and criminal penalties.

PRACTICE EXAMINATION

After your identification has been confirmed, you will be directed to a testing carrel. You will be instructed on-screen to enter your Social Security number. You will take your photograph which will remain on screen throughout your examination session. This photograph will also print on your score report.

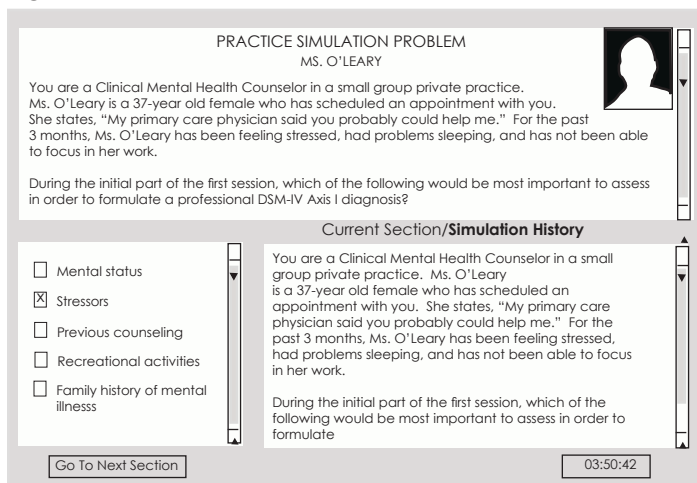

Before beginning the timed examination, you will be given the opportunity to practice taking an exam on the computer. The time you use for this practice session is NOT counted as part of your examination time or score. When you are comfortable with the computer testing process, you may quit the practice session and begin the timed examination.

TIMED EXAMINATION

Simulation Software

Three windows appear on the screen at all times during a simulation examination (see Figure 1). The Scenario Window section is displayed across the top of the screen; the candidate's picture is displayed in the upper right-hand corner of this window. Each simulation begins with a brief paragraph in this window that provides preliminary information about the client; subsequent sections contain information about the changing patient situation. A scroll bar is available when necessary to view all text. Each Scenario Window will also provide the candidate with specific instructions about whether to "CHOOSE ONLY ONE" response in the section or to "SELECT AS MANY" responses as appropriate to gather information about the client.

The Options Window is displayed at the lower left portion of the screen and contains all options (choices or possible responses) from which to choose in the current section. A scroll bar is also available when necessary to view all options.

The Simulation History Window is displayed at the lower right portion of the screen. This window can be displayed in two formats using the button labeled "Current Section/Simulation History" located at the top of this window. When in the "Current Section" mode, the options chosen in the current section and the results for each choice are displayed in this window. When in the "Simulation History" mode, the scenarios from all previous sections as well as the options chosen and their results are displayed in the window. A scroll bar is available on the right side of this window to review previous scenarios and/or options and results.

Once a candidate has read the scenario for each section and determined which option(s) are appropriate for selection, he/she can simply click the box to the left of the option to "choose" it. Immediately, the option selected and the results for that option appear in the right-hand Simulation History Window. After a candidate selects or "chooses" an option, he/she cannot reconsider and "unselect" it, since the information from that option has been revealed.

In sections where a candidate is instructed to "SELECT AS MANY as indicated," the candidate should select all of the options believed appropriate at the time and then click the "Go To Next Section" button at the bottom left of the screen to continue to the next section. A dialog box will appear requesting that the candidate confirm he/she wishes to continue to the next section and warning that returning to this section to make additional choices will not be possible. By selecting "Yes," the software automatically takes the candidate to the next section of the client simulation.

In sections where a candidate is instructed to "CHOOSE ONLY ONE unless directed to make another selection," the candidate should carefully review each option and then choose the best option. A dialog box will then appear presenting the results for the choice or requesting that the candidate select another response in the section.

A "Help Screen" will be accessible to candidates throughout the simulation examination explaining how to navigate through the examination.

FOLLOWING THE EXAMINATION

After completing the examination, candidates are asked to complete a short evaluation of their examination experience. Then, candidates are instructed to report to the examination proctor to receive their score report. Scores are reported in written form only and are not reported over the telephone, by electronic mail, or by facsimile. Your score report will indicate a "pass" or "fail."

PASS/FAIL SCORE DETERMINATION

The passing point for each form of the NCMHCE was set by the examination committee using a criterion-referenced method. The exact passing point may vary from one form of the examination to another, depending on the scored problems included on the version you attempted. The examination committee follows strict guidelines in selecting the problems for each examination form to ensure the versions of the examination are parallel in difficulty.

Each section, Information Gathering (IG) or Decision Making (DM), in a simulation was evaluated by content experts when the problem was developed, and a minimum pass level (MPL) was established for the section using the scoring weights assigned to the options in that section. The MPL for an individual problem on the examination (IG or DM) is the sum of the MPL for all of the IG and DM sections contained in the problem; the MPL for the total examination is determined by summing the MPLs for all IG and DM problems on the examination form.

To assist candidates in evaluating their performance on the Simulation Examination, scores are provided for both IG and DM sections. It is the TOTAL RAW SCORE for IG and DM on the entire examination that determines whether you pass or fail the Simulation Examination. Candidates must achieve TOTAL RAW passing scores in both IG and DM to successfully complete this examination.

SCORES CANCELLED BY NBCC OR AMP

NBCC and AMP are responsible for the validity and integrity of the scores they report. On occasion, occurrences such as computer malfunction or misconduct by a candidate, may cause a score to be suspect. NBCC and AMP reserve the right to void or withhold examination results if, upon investigation, violation of their regulations is discovered.

IF YOU PASS THE EXAMINATION

Candidates who pass the examination should follow their state board requirements for licensure. Please refer to insert for state specific information.

IF YOU DO NOT PASS THE EXAMINATION

Candidates may take the examination once every 3 months. The candidate must re-register by submitting a new NBCC Examination Registration Form with the appropriate fee. Please refer to insert for state specific information.

FAILING TO REPORT FOR AN EXAMINATION

A candidate who fails to report for an examination forfeits the registration and all fees paid to take the examination. A completed NBCC Registration Form and examination fee are required to reapply for examination.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Information about candidates for testing and their examination results are considered confidential. Studies and reports concerning candidates will contain no personally identifiable information, unless authorized by the candidate.

SCORE VERIFICATION

Candidates may request a score verification for themselves or a third party at a cost of $20 per verification. Requests must be submitted to NBCC in writing by mail or fax. The request must include the candidate's name (if tested under a different name, include test name), Social Security number, mailing address, telephone number, date of examination, name of examination, state in which the examination was taken, and where to send the verification. They should submit this information with the required fee payable to NBCC in the form of a money order or cashier's check. If faxing the request, they should include credit card information (card number, expiration date, name as written on card, 3-digit verification number from the back, and signature). Score verifications will be mailed within four to six weeks after receipt of the request and fee.
