Approval Requirements

Providers seeking to offer single programs for NBCC continuing education credit (NBCC credit or NBCC hours) must satisfy all applicable NBCC Continuing Education Provider Policy (policy) requirements, including all application requirements and policy terms related to program content, instructors/presenters and provider activities.

Single program providers can offer NBCC credit only for live event programs, including real-time interactive programs and in-service programs presented in person or by electronic devices that permit the participant to communicate and interact with the presenter(s) consistent with policy and the directives of NBCC.

- (a). Each single program and application must be reviewed and receive written approval by NBCC prior to being offered for NBCC continuing education credit. If approved by NBCC, the program may be offered for NBCC credit for the duration of one year following the approval date, conditioned upon no material change to the program and compliance with all policy requirements.
- (b). Following the expiration or termination of a single program approval, a provider may reapply for approval. In order to maintain uninterrupted approval, the provider must submit the application at least 60 days prior to the program approval expiration date, including all required and supporting materials, and all fees and costs related to the single program application. A rush fee will apply if received less than 60 days prior to expiration.
- (c). NBCC retains the sole authority and discretion to approve, reject or condition a single program for continuing education credit.

Single Program Eligibility Requirements

In order to qualify for single program approval, a provider must satisfy the following program eligibility requirements:

- (a). The provider satisfies all policy requirements, agreements and instructions.
- (b). The content and quality of the program satisfy and are consistent with all NBCC policy requirements, agreements and instructions.
- (c). The program presenters satisfy all policy requirements, agreements and instructions, including rules concerning presenter qualifications, knowledge and performance.
- (d). The provider designates an authorized representative to communicate and cooperate with NBCC concerning all matters related to the requested single program approval.
- (e). The provider submits a completed and accurate single program application to NBCC, including all required information, materials and fees. All such application materials become the property of NBCC, and application fees are not refundable.
